AD CLUB BOOSTS FOR BREAKWATER

The Honolulu Ad Club is going right after the Nawiliwili break- Christian Endeavorers in the Sunwater. At a largely attended meet- day School hall at Kapan Sunday ing held last Tuesday in Honolulu, morning, beginning at eleven the subject was taken up and the o'clock. Rev. I. K. Kanuwii pre-Club went on record as endorsing the breakwater. A committee composed of Chas. R. Frazier, Superintendent Caldwell and Judge P. L. Weaver was appointed to compile a folder, setting forth the importance of the breakwater and to get the same before every member of Congress.

The secretary reported tha thirty-one persons of Kauai had joined the club during the recent tour, bringing the total of membership up to 558.

The pictures taken by Mr. R. J. Baker on Kauai, during the excursion, were exhibited in the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday evening.

SHORT-CUT ROAD OPENED TO AUTOS

The road department has done some very fine work on what is known as the "short cut" above Koloa. It has been finely levelled and rounded over, so that automobiles may use it without loss of time. The road saves the 'ups and downs" of the present main throughfare and also cuts off two and one tenths miles in the distance from Libue to Waimea.

Ou Club Dance

Cards have been issued announcing a dance of the Ou Club in the Libue Hall Saturday evening. April 18, beginning at 8 o'clock. Each member is privileged to invite two friends. The members of the "Ilima Club", of Makaweli, have been invited.
